PARTNERS

IN

EDUCATION

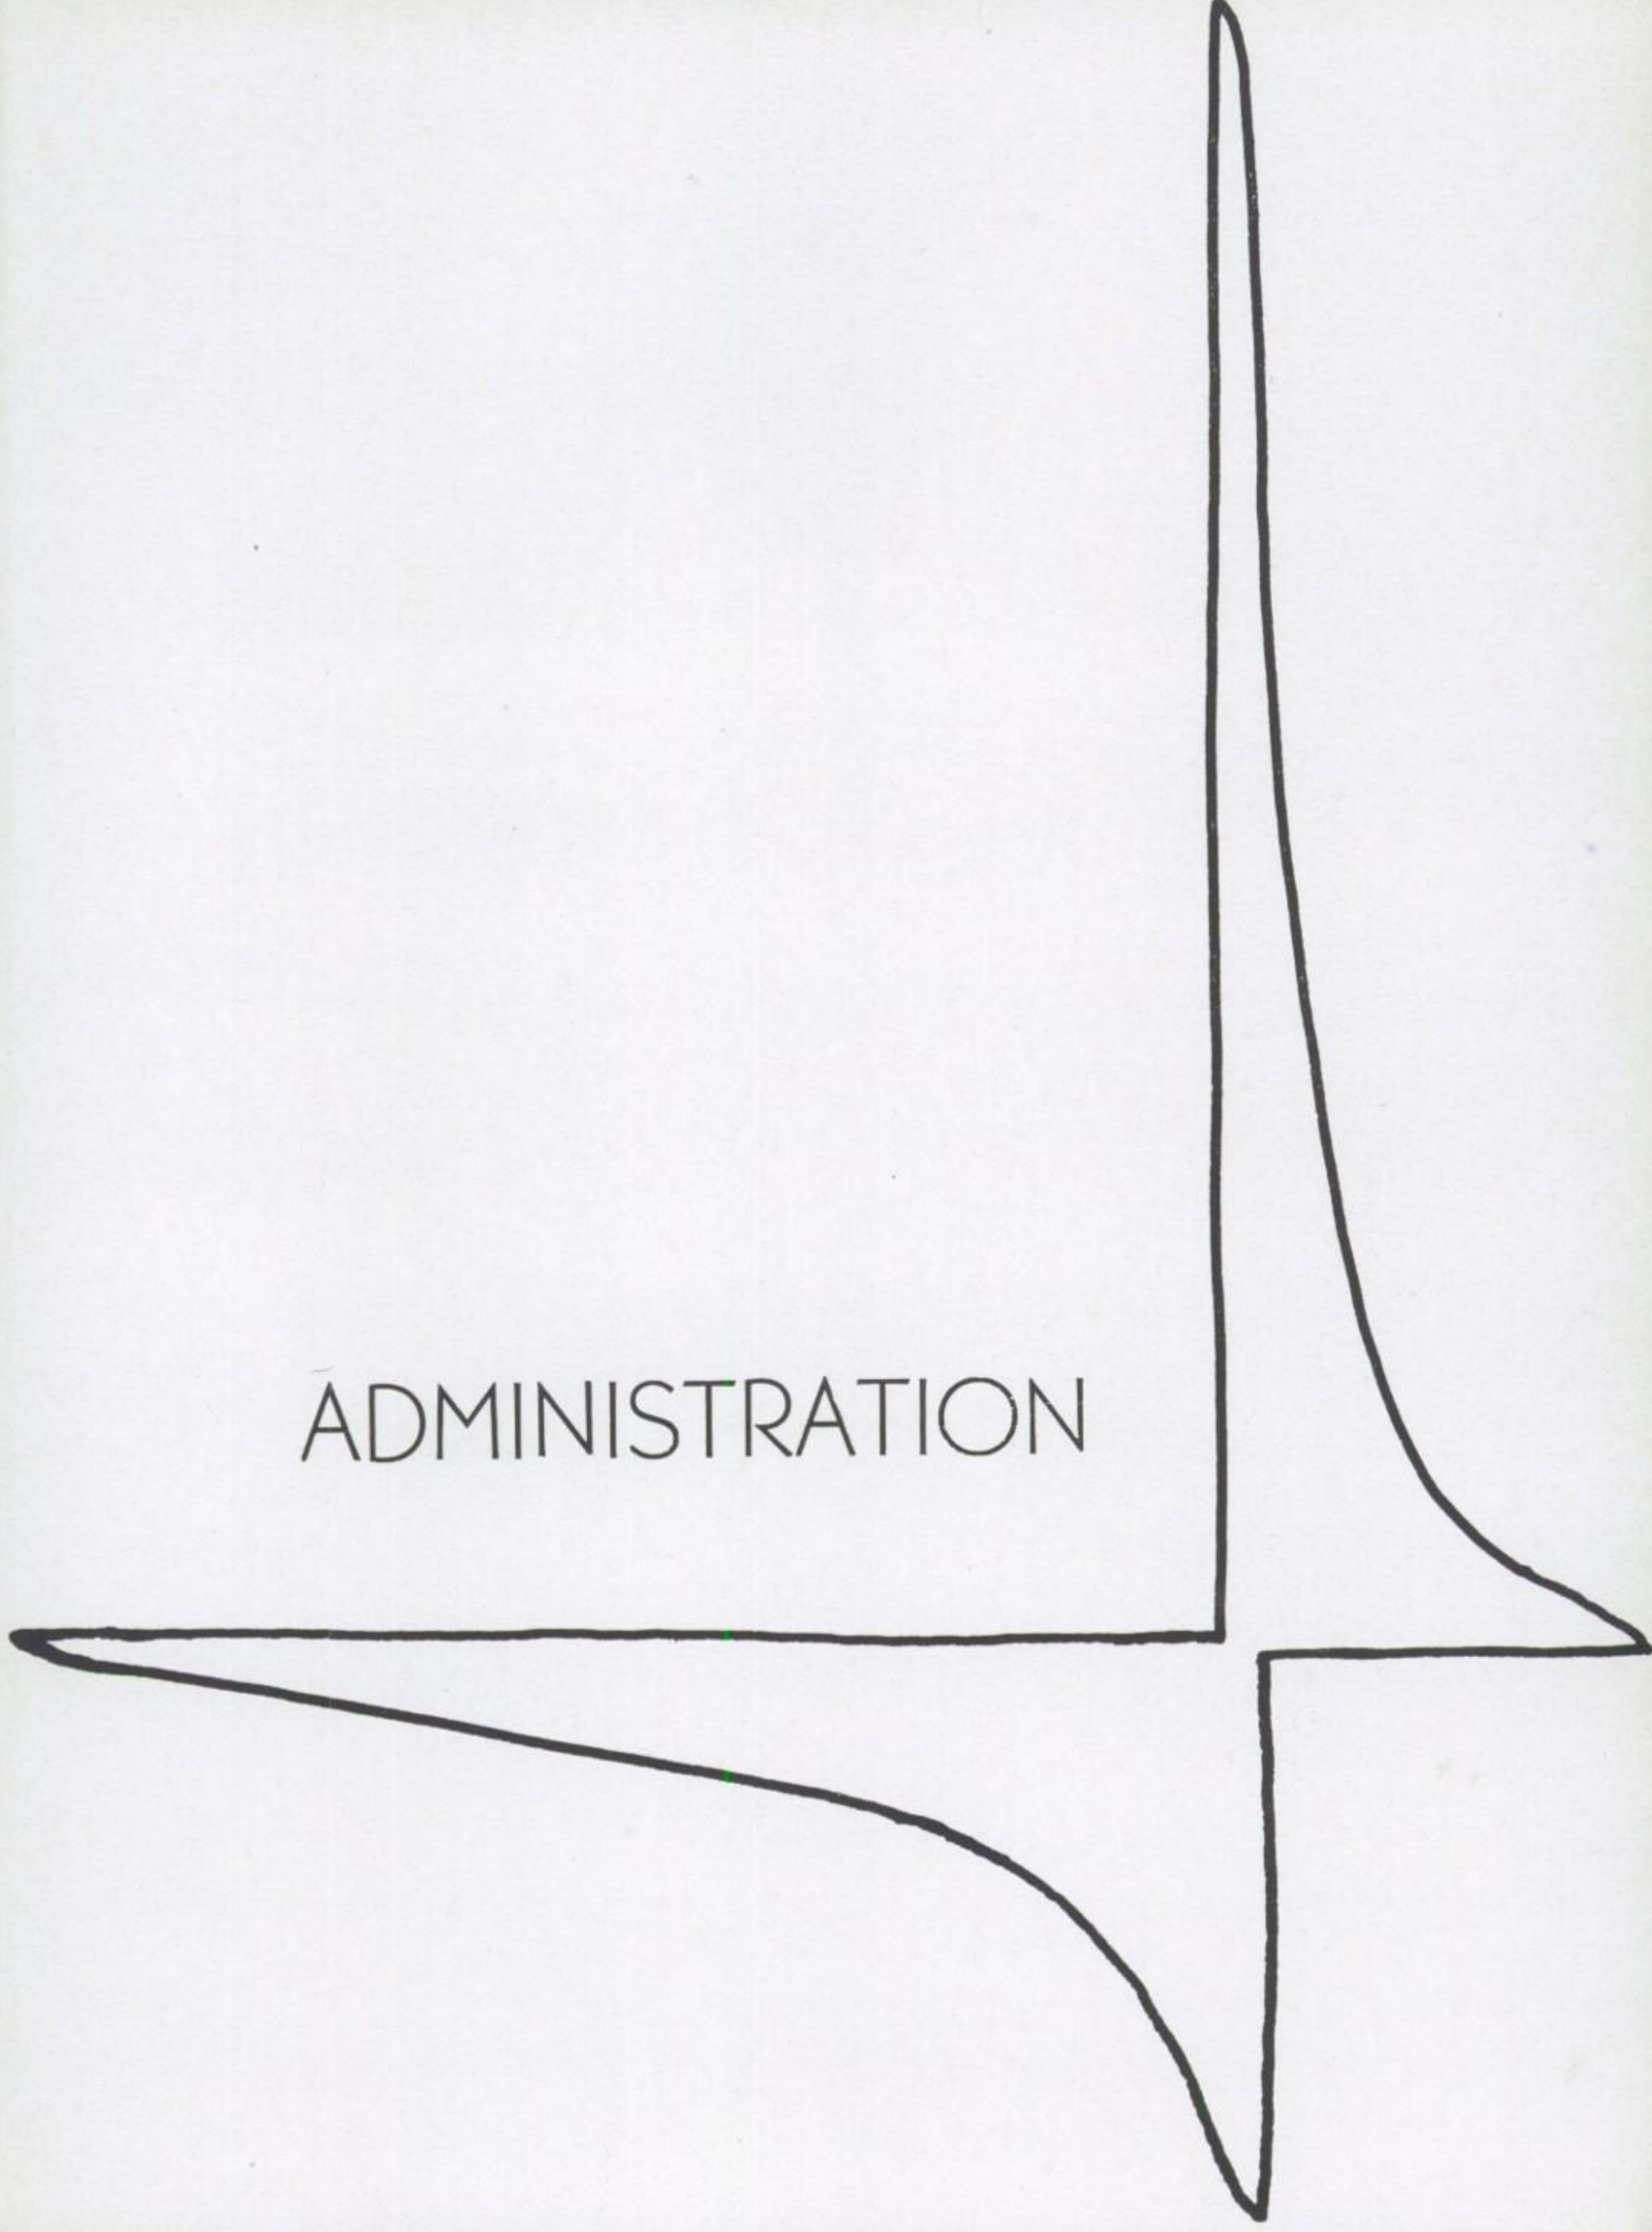

With the opening of the 1964-65 school year, the Western Boone County Community School Corporation began operation. This Corporation consists of six townships: Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Sugar Creek, Clinton, and Marion. Two high schools exist, Granville Wells and Thorntown. Pinnell High School students and a part of the Dover students were transferred to Granville Wells. The students are now one body united in their efforts toward a better education.

POEM

By Shirley Pepple, Bernice Dennis, Terry Hicks, Alfred Dodson

Ray can really drive those cars;
His only trouble is buying new tires.

Nancy Branstetter is really a riot,
She's lots of fun but seldom quiet.

Marilyn is a little tall and slim,
She always looks neat and wears a grin.

Ellen and Ed are always together,
Rain or shine or any kind of weather.

Thomas, always quiet and good,
Is very handy with nails, hammer, and wood.

Ed Hawkins is usually on the beam,
As one of the student managers of our team.

Sue, Patty, Margie, Sharon, and Jane,
Make up just about half of the cheerleading gang.

Bob Myers has his own car,
Although his girl doesn't live far.

Dixie always gets the willys,
When she's around a guy named Billy.

John Booker, a pill in bookkeeping class,
Goes with a certain cheerleading lass.

Bonnie is short, quaint, and witty, too,
Ever cheerful, her virtues many, her faults few.

Shirley just can't be beat,
She's always ready for something to eat.

Alfred is still looking for the right lass,
If he doesn't hurry, he will run out of gas.

Dianna Eaton is a lot of fun,
But when she gets mad, you'd better run.

John Deck, with his short, curly hair,
May some day be a millionaire.

Describing Barbara isn't a very hard task,
'Cause she is a very nice lass.

Terry, who is one of the best,
Six feet under someday will rest.

"J.R." and his quiet ways,
May help him to succeed one of these days.

Roddy Gerald is sometimes a charmer,
Like a knight in shining armor.

Gaye Riner is quite a clown,
In class she never runs down.

Johnny Anderson is not very quiet,
And when around girls, he soon starts a riot.

Bernice Dennis' nickname is "Bean,"
And she always seems to be very keen.

Winifred is really better known as "Freddie"
She is always "ruff and ready."

He's really bashful and a little shy,
But John Rhoades is really a very nice guy.

Luann Gray never seems to have much to say,
But maybe she will say "I do" someday.

Alan Heath likes to play ball and is a very good sport,
And on any night he would be a good escort.

Rick always has something funny to say,
But he does a little work along with his play.

Diane Hubble is a real nice gal,
She will make anyone a real nice pal.

Bob Weaver who plays a hot saxophone,
Will never be alone.

Dennis will always be on top,
Because his favorite class is shop.

Margaret, Roberta, and Jennifer it's true,
Will be known as the "Three Musketeers" at I.U.

Dick is the height of the class,
And his driving is a little fast.

The blushing boy is Paul Dale,
With all his talents he will never fail.

Alinda Hicks, our old pal,
May soon be a married gal.

Leon is a fairly tall guy,
Without him our team could not get by.

Marsha's eyes sparkle with joy,
When she thinks of that certain boy.

Esther is real sweet,
As a friend she just can't be beat.

Albert is a whiz at basketball,
What will they do without him next fall?

Kathleen is really quite sharp,
She's always happy as a lark.

Janet may live on a farm,
But that doesn't mean she doesn't have form.

A real sweet girl is Suzanna,
Someday she'll find that certain man'na.

John Smith may some day grow tall,
We're all waiting for that day to fall.

Ralph it quiet and shy,
But to our class he is quite a guy.

Otis is the quiet one in our class,
He goes with a very nice junior lass.

Lea goes for a boy of college age,
Tell us Lea, is it just a phase?

Julian may seem meek, and he may seem mild,
But he really isn't such a "Model" child.

Now from our school Donna hates to part,
Because you see, it's here she lost her heart.

Sharron Miller who walks with dignity,
Each day in the office you will see.

Her manner shows that she is a friend,
And it is on time Linda has been.

To a hope of success she does hold,
So to Cheryl we wish fortune untold.

Patrina is known for her cheerful nature, and an attitude that's right, especially for stirring fun at night.

Donald and Martha are quite a pair,
Argue this statement, if you dare.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

By Esther Cox, Suzanna Leeke, Jim MacKinnon, Rick Mitchell

I, John Booker, will my ability to go steady in my Senior year to Tom Hannis.

I, Dianna Eaton, will 50 pounds of my weight to Linda Graves and 5 inches of height to Herb Foster.

I, Otis Huckstep, will my ability to go to sleep in Mrs. Clifton's English class to anyone who wants to take the chance.

I, Bill Zimmerman, will an outside light to anybody who wants to see what they are doing. (Chanley's)

I, Dick Hitch, will my ability to drive a gravel truck to Mark Redman.

I, Roddy Gearld, will my ability to chew gum in Mr. Farris' class to anyone who wants to take the chance of getting caught like I did!

I, Ray Ballard, will (CENSORED)!

I, Bob Myers, being of crooked mind and body, will my superior ability in everything to Don Scott.

I, Tom Pennington, being of not so willed mind and of not so strong of mind, don't will anything. I think a depression is coming and I want to be prepared.

I, Dixie Chanley, will my ability to have dates in a truck to whoever wants to see the sights of the Indianapolis Stock Yards.

I, Bob Weaver, will my class sweater to Gary Emmert.

I, John Smith, will my superior driving ability to anyone who likes to take chances.

I, Margie Percifield, will my ability to be a "B Team" cheerleader and take Plane Geometry when I'm a Senior to Frances Biddle.

I, John Rhoades, will ...&$"...?&$-.*" and my ex-pet skunk to "Big Rat."

I, Julian Owens, will my stars on my report card back to Mr. Earl so that he will have enough of them for next year's class.

I, Al Long, will all my pegged pants to Andy Houk in hope that he will wear them in good health and prosperity.

I, Terry Hicks, will my superior good conduct in Mrs. Clifton's English class to Virgil Kincaid.

I, Shirley Pepple, will my figure to Diane Abney.

I, Freddie Owens, will my little red car to Bobby Pounds.

I, Kitty Hopper, will my ability to lose 30 pounds during the summer before my Senior year to Bob (Smitty) Smith.

I, Sharon Pittman, will my ability to go steady with John Booker to any idiot who wants to try it. Good luck!

I, Bonnie Hicks, will my ability to talk a teacher into changing a grade from a D to an A to anyone who needs it.

I, Marilyn Brown, will a panel truck to Marilyn Kincaid and Jennifer Stewart so they can find parked couples.

I, Nancy Branstetter, will my white horse to the Ajax White Charger. It seems I don't need it any more.

I, Marsha Haws, will my black sling-shot jumper to Rickey Beam in hope that he will enjoy it as much as his older brother, Donald did.

I, Martha Hicks, will my ability to go steady with the biggest flirt in Wells School to anyone who doesn't get jealous easily.

I, Jane Shubert, will my ability to go with a neat college guy and become queen the same night to anyone who thinks it is impossible.

I, Sharron Miller, will my ability to go with a boy from Rose Poly to Cathy Linn.

I, Rick Mitchell, will a large supply of car freshener to the Sophomore boys because they might be able to use it during the future Halloween seasons.

I, Alinda Hicks, will my ability to "hook" a basketball star to Jennifer Stewart.

I, Jennifer Stohler, will my graceful manner to Rita Noland, hoping she won't get hurt.

I, Roberta Robertson, will my rugged behavior to Gary Emmert, hoping he doesn't kill himself with it.

I, Margaret Randle, will my French expressions to Rex Nichols, hoping he knows what he's talking about.

I, Barbara Yount, will all of my old boyfriends, except one, to Donna Robinson since she always was trying to date them when I was.

I, John Deck, will my four years of being class president to Don Robinson.

I, Donald Beam, will my carefree and happy ways to John Burris.

I, Paul Dale, will my ability to always be home by 11:30 during basketball season to Charlie Summers.

I, Luann Gray, will all of my hair powder to Carolyn Wethington.

I, Patrina Ford, will my string of boyfriends to Judy Wethington.

I, Cheryl Godbey, will my unique walk to Mrs. Small.

I, Bernice Dennis, will my ability to work in the community store to Rita Noland, providing she meets the requirements.

I, Ed Deck, will my membership in the Crash Club to Don Robinson.

I, Ed Hawkins, will my ability to be student manager for four years to Joe Fuller and Ed Owen.

I, Sue Rosen, will my superb taste in color combinations and my beatnick hair-do to Kris Parks.

I, Gaye Riner, will my never failing ability to get cheerleader alternate to Jennifer Stewart.

I, Patty Pratt, will my bewitching looks to Nancy Burris.

I, Jim MacKinnon, will my ability to be president of the Honor Society with a C average to Joe Fuller.

I, Suzanna Leeke, will my ability to get along with my fellow classmates so well to Mary Shubert.

I, Ellen Jackson, will my parents and their porch light to Gayle Jackson.

I, Diana Hubble, will my can of man repellent to Marilyn McClaine.

I, Alan Heath, will my basketball ability to Alan Stohler.

I, Esther Cox, will my 4-H honors to anyone who wants them.

I, Lea Trendelman, will my ability to change my ideas on going steady so often to Marie Barthalow.

I, Donna Trent, will my perfect attendance to Sue Thompson.

I, Dennis Smith, will my muscular abilities to Mickey Smith because he needs them so much more than I do.

I, Janet Newkirk, will my studying ability to Margaret Dillon.

I, Linda Mangus, will my wide load to Peggy Dziggel.

I, John Anderson, will my cigarettes to Mr. Dimitt.

I, Leon Ford, will my graceful basketball ability to Glen Shrum.

We, Alfred and Ralph Dodson, will our church-going ways to the Barthalow twins.

We, the Senior class, will our Senior cords and a certain jumper to Jennifer Stewart in hopes that she will wear them in remembrance of this great class.

PROPHECY

Dear Mr. Purdue:

It has been ten years since our class graduated from Wells. We thought you might be interested in what everyone is doing.

Barbara Yount is running a school for car hops.

Freddie Owens is Speaker of the House.

Bonnie Hicks is now the first leading lady jockey.

The Dodson twins are doing the Certs mint commercial. Ralph says it's a breath mint, and Alf says it's a candy mint.

Shirley Pepple teaches Chemistry at New Ross High School. A Mr. Swink is the principal.

Patty Pratt and Sue Rosen were married in a double wedding ceremony. Somehow it seems things got mixed up, it's now Mrs. Patty Nichols and Mrs. Sue Wethington.

Dixie and Billy were married, and to economize they sold the car, and are now driving the big stock truck.

Gaye and Eddie were married, and went on their honeymoon in Cooky's wrecker.

Sharon Miller teaches Home Ec at Wells, so she can be permanent chairman of the Decoration Committee for the Snowball Dance.

Eddie Hawkins married a bootlegger's daughter; he loves her still.

Donald Beam is the Chief of Police in metropolitan Jamestown; the speed limit is 120. Martha Hicks is his deputy.

Julian Owens dyed his skin black, and he's known as the Rev. Mr. Black.

Cheryl Godbey is head of the Art Department for the Mickey Mouse Show; she assists Bill Jackson.

Patrina Ford bought out the Chevrolet Company. Bobby Myers publishes the Charlie Chicken comic book and Mad magazine.

Al Long teaches at the Patricia Stevens Finishing School. He teaches a class in self-assurance.

Bobby Weaver is all pro line backer for the Cleveland Browns.

Donna Trent is supposedly in our class, but we haven't seen her for six months, so we're not sure, and have decided not to write a prophecy for her.

Alan Heath is now a coach; the boys call him Coach-Heath.

Tom Pennington and Terry Hicks have a Christmas tree farm for the use of the Wells Seniors only.

John Smith and Dennis Smith manufacture Smith Brothers cough drops.

Linda Mangus and Dianna Eaton operate a combination restaurant and dance studio. Their motto is "Eat at Eatons, and Tango with Mango."

Margie Percifield operates a tavern down by the river; it's known as Marge's Barge.

Margaret Randle owns a shoe factory; she makes Randle's sandals.

Otis Huckstep worked his way up to head carry-out boy at Standard.

Luann Gray manufactures hair powder. A little dab will do you.

Suzanna Leeke joined the Peace Corps. That's the last we heard of her.

John Deck coaches the grappling team at Indiana State University.

Jennifer Stohler lives in Paris; she designs evening dresses for Christian Dior.

Bernice Dennis married after graduation from college; she's teaching the first grade at Wells. We hear that she and Harvey are really cleaning up over there.

Diana Hubble is a hair stylist. She created a new hair style called Hubble's Bubble.

Ed Deck bought out all the stock in the Boone County R.E.M.C. Now all the porch lights go off at 11.

Nancy Branstetter and Leon Ford are doing the Amos 'n Andy program on radio.

John Rhoades is now a sanitation officer. He always did hate "Rats."

We have no prophecy for Marilyn Brown because she transferred to North Salem and was never seen again. We think it had to do with a boy.

Jim MacKinnon joined the Marines, but he was kicked out for lack of intelligence, thus receiving the nick-name "sub-marine."

Jane Shubert and Sharon Pittman operate a home for retired yell leaders.

Janet Newkirk always was noted for her intelligence in high school. She graduated from college with two degrees — a B.S. and a Mrs.

Marsha Haws won the "500". They don't call her "Parnelli" for "nothing."

Dick Hitch is President of D.K.T.E.G.F.G.W.

Lea Trendelman transferred to Rose Poly from Indiana State. She decided the grass was greener on the other side of town.

Ricky Mitchell received the National award for the smallest thriving farm in the U.S. He farms five acres near New Ross.

Alinda Hicks is now employed as a private secretary for Larry at Donnelley's. She had to get a job so she could see him once in a while.

Have you heard Roddy Gearld on the radio? He is now a WLS disc jockey. His assistant, Ray Ballard, dusts the records off, and keeps the needle warmed up.

Kathleen Hopper started out as a beautician, but she now owns her own barber shop; she decided she likes male customers better.

To everyone's surprise Johnny Anderson graduated first in the class, and went on to Harvard to study law.

John Booker always wanted to be a business manager; we hear he runs a very clean business; he owns and operates his own car wash system.

Roberta Robertson is a millionaire, she decided to rent her brother, Mick, out to a certain 4 Junior girls.

Paul Dale received a dishonorable discharge from the Prophecy Committee because of neglect and questionable outside activities.

Ellen Jackson was stoned to death when her friends found out she was on the Prophecy Committee.

Well, we know you must be relieved to find out we all turned out to be a success.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR PROM — 1964

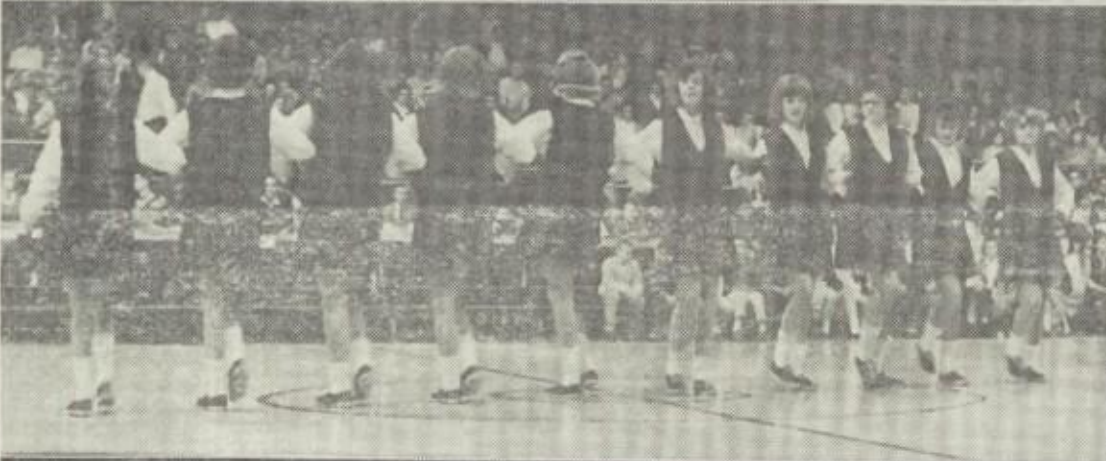

The Junior and Senior Prom was held April 4 in the beautiful Wabash College Ballroom in Crawfordsville. The theme, "Moonlight and Roses," was carried out in the lovely decorations, programs, and favors.

At 7:30 p. m., a delicious four-course meal was served to the juniors, seniors, their guests, and faculty members with their husbands and wives. The long banquet tables were beautifully appointed with bouquets of long-stemmed pink roses, center-pieces of carnations, and tall lighted tapers. Scented rose pink pins were given as favors. Following the dinner, John Deck, junior class president, welcomed the seniors and guests, his committees and sponsors, Mr. William Wilson and Mrs. Dorothy Sommerville. Tom Wethington, senior class president, gave the response. Members of the junior class then gave a short program in honor of the seniors.

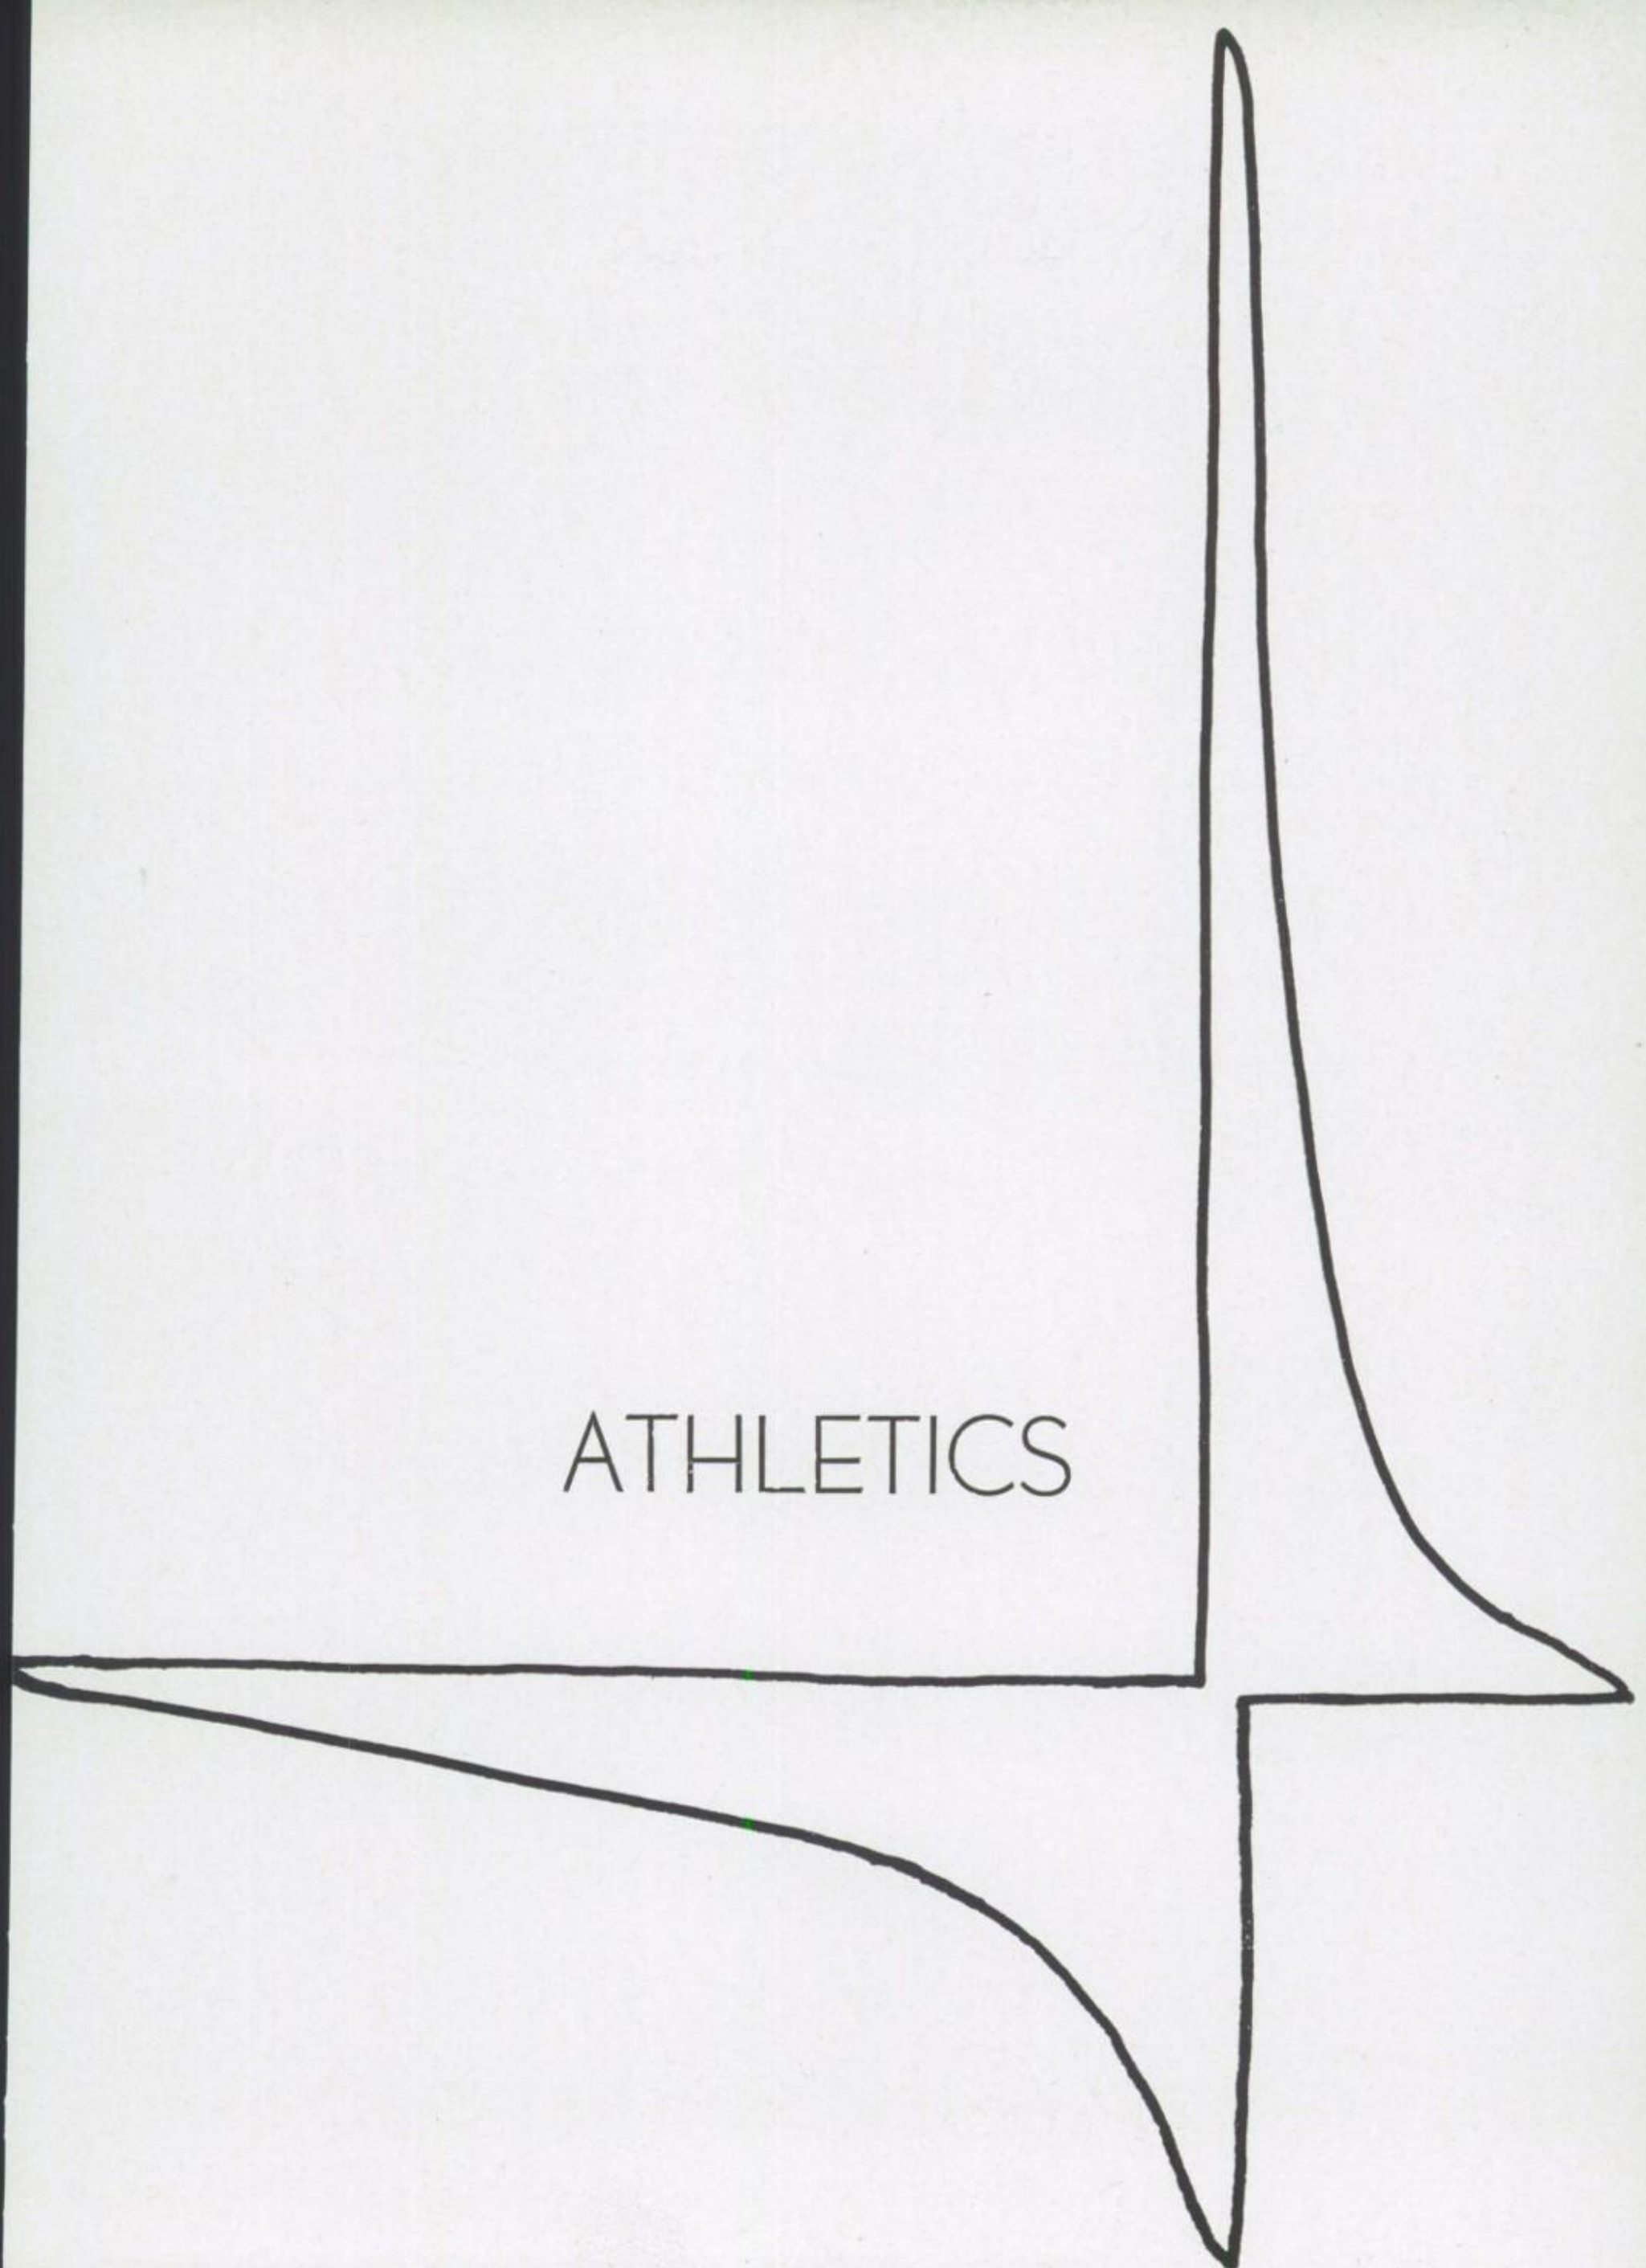

Dancing began at 8:30 p. m. to the music of the "Cavemen" of Wabash. A setting for picture taking during the evening was a small garden scene. A large white arch laced with greenery and white and red carnations enclosed a quaint love seat. Beside the arch to the right was a rock garden fountain. Above the arch was a silver moon. Carnations and roses were laced in the picket fence extending from each side of the arch. Punch and cookies were served during the evening.

At mid-night, the prom ended, but all will hold in memory the sounds of joy and laughter of that night.
